

INDEX.

1559

CORPORATIONS— Continued.	ART.	SEC.	PAGE
Determination of judge to be endorsed on certificate, and recorded..	23	44	296
Corporators then to be incorporated . .	23	45	296
Certified copy of certificate to be evidence.	23	46	296
Amendment to be made in same way as original incorporation.....	23	47	296
Usual fees to clerks for recording.....	23	48	297
General powers.....	23	49-55	297-298
To have succession.....	23	50	297
To sue and be sued.....	23	51	297
To have seal....	23	52	297
To acquire and dispose of property.....	23	53	297
To appoint president and other officers...	23	54	298
To make by-laws.....	23	55	298
Shall have no powers but those conferred or necessary to exercise of those con- ferred...	23	56	299
To be managed by such number of trus- tees, directors or managers as by-laws or charter prescribe.....	23	57	299
To be not less than four nor more than twelve.....	23	57	299
To be citizens of the United States	23	57	299
A majority citizens of this State	23	57	299
To be chosen by stockholders, except for first year.....	23	57	299
Elections to be held by ballot	23	58	299
Vacancies to be filled as prescribed in by- laws.....	23	59	300
Omission to hold election on designated day not to dissolve corporation , . . .	23	60	300
Subscriptions may be made in land or other property.....	23	61	300
Such subscription to be only in property suitable for corporation to own... . .	23	61	300
And when previously authorized by stockholders.....	23	61	300
Books to show what property was re- ceived for stock.....	23	62	300-301
Stock to be personal property..... . . .	23	63	301
To be transferable, when...	23	63	301
Individual liability of stockholders for debts of corporation	23	64	301
How long to continue.....	23	64	301
How and when stock shall be paid.....	23	64	301
Enforcement of payment for stock.....	23	64	301
Certificate showing payment of stock to be filed and recorded.....	23	65	302